Call to Order

1. In association with a civil action (Defendant: Elgin Community College et al), Election Buddy received a subpoena from the United States District Court to produce the following:
 - a. All records and results of the elections by the Elgin Community College Faculty Association (7/6/20-7/10/20), including all candidates, votes cast for every candidate, and reports of any manual edit/alteration/change.
2. There is an initial fee of $600.00 associated with this release of information through Election Buddy.

Kris Campbell moved to approve the $600.00 fee for the purpose stated above. Patrick Gordon seconded.

Baudelaire Ulysse is the originator of the subpoena. He did not ask the Elections Committee for a recount or any of the other documents being requested, that could have been released for free.

If the vote passes, the money will go to Election Buddy to produce the information to the plaintiff.

Our contract with Election Buddy states we are responsible for these types of expenses if they occur as a result of requests for documentation. If we do not approve the money, Election Buddy can sue ECCFA for the cost.

There was a request from Patrick Gordon for the Senators to see a copy of the subpoena. Kris Campbell, who is a member of the Elections Committee, emailed a photo of the subpoena to Mary Arndt during the meeting. Mary Arndt will distribute this photo to the Senators along with this meetings' minutes. See last page of this document.

Motion was approved with one abstention.
